

A Radical for Jesus

Joel Horst, 2008

If ye love me, keep my commandments. John 14:15

Joel Horst, 2008

G D G D

1. I know some peo-ple think I'm strange, Or that I'm rad-i-cal. And I know oth-ers prob'-ly think
2. Now, some want to be diff-er-ent For dif-fer-en-ces sake. They want to go a diff-er-ent route
3. Now you may think I'm cra-zy, or That I have gone too far. You don't want to be diff-er-ent,

That I'm fan-a-ti-cal. But my re-sponse is sim-ple this: "My friend, if you are right,
Than what all oth-ers take. And though I do not think like them, I still know that I am
You like the way you are. But when I come to Judg-ment Day, I'd ra-ther hear Him say,

Then I be-came a rad-i-cal By walk-ing in the light."
A rad-i-cal be-cause I fol-low rad-i-cal com-mands.
"Well done, My good and faith-ful one" Than to be turned a-way.

Chorus: C G D G C G A D

Oh, a rad-i-cal for Je-sus Is what I want to be, By keep-ing His com-mand-ments, O-bey-ing faith-ful-ly.

After last Oh, a rad-i-cal for Je-sus Is what we all should be, By keep-ing His com-mand-ments, O-bey-ing faith-ful-ly.
verse:

For He said if we love Him, We must keep His com-mands. So I will be a rad-i-cal While hold-ing Je-sus' hand.

For He said if we love Him, We must keep His commands. So will you be a rad-i-cal While hold-ing Je-sus' hand?
