Building on the Rock

A B E

Of which we should all take note, If we want to en - ter Heav - en's pear - ly gates.
 Found his house was swept a - way By the wat - ers and the winds — of the storm.
 Then "De - part from Me," He'll say, "To the ev - er - last - ing pun - ish - ment of Hell."

Chorus:

A E

Are you wise ly build ing on a firm found - a - tion, Will your house with stand the storm?
 house with - stand the storm?

B E

Or are you the fool with has ty comple tion, Who lost when the strong rains poured?
 lost when strong — rains poured?

A D

If you want your house — to with - stand the tempest, You must fol low Christ's com - mands. —

A E A D A

Then your soul can rest when the strong winds blast, For you'll know your house will stand!
 know your house will stand!
