

The Covenant Song

Joel Horst, 2010

A D E A

1. Way back in the be - gin - ning When God cre - a - ted man, He
2. The Sav - ior came from Hea - ven And paid the hea - vy price To
3. God wants to give the best of life That can be had on earth, Through
4. God wants a God - ly fam - i - ly That's burst - ing out with joy. With a

5 D B E

made Eve to be A - dam's wife, And made a marr - iage plan: That a sanc - ti - fy and cleanse the Church He's chos - en for His wife. And I health and sick - ness, good and ill, In sor - row and in mirth. And I hap - py mom and hap - py dad, And hap - py girls and boys. And He man should leave his child hood home And join to his bride, And want to fol - low in the path That Christ showed me to live, To know it's on - ly pos - si - ble If both of us will be Faith - wants the chil - dren con - fi - dent That their life is se - cure: No all their lives in love and joy And har - mo - ny a - bide.

9 A E A

13 D A D E

ho - nor and to che - rish, To love and to for - give.
ful to one an - oth - er Un - til e - ter - ni - ty.
13 mat - ter what, their mom and dad Have joined to part no more.

The Covenant Song

2

A E D A D A

Yes, I will keep my cov-e - nant Be - fore the Lord a - bove— For bet-ter or for worse, my vow To cher - ish and — to — love. And while we both on earth still live Our cov - e - nant will stand. For what God joins can ne - ver Be — torn a - part by man.

23 D E A E D

28 E D A D E A