

The Stone is Rolled Back

J. M. H.

Joel M. Horst, 2009

mp

1. Je - sus' dis - ci - ples left His tomb, Hearts filled with mis - er - y and
2. When John and Pe - ter came to see, Wond - ring if this could real - ly
3. Then Je - sus shared a meal with them, Told how He died for fal - len

mp

4

gloom. They watched as guards were brought to make the grave se - cure.
be, They found the emp - ty tomb and fold - ed, emp - ty clothes.
men, Yet is a - ris - en, so now all be - lie - vers will rise.

8

But on the third day wo - men came. They found the tomb was not the
When the dis - ci - ples met that day, Talk - ing of what had tak - en
Though He's gone back to Heav'n on high, And we know we may some day same, For the guards lay as dead be - side the op - en door!

12

place, Sud - den - ly Je - sus Christ ap - peared. For he had a - rose!
die, When He comes back, we'll rise a - gain, Join Him in the skies!

ff

Chorus:

Yes, the tomb now is emp-ty Yes, the Sav-ior a -
For the stone is rolled back, And the Sav-ior is gone.

rose. Ov-er death and its pow - er All of its ter - ri - ble pow-er Nev-er death's sting we'll
The vic-t'ry is won.

know. For this won-der-ful Je - sus Came to save fal - len man.
Yes, he's a won-der-ful Sav-ior Came to save fal-len

What a wonder ful Sav - ior, What a wonder ful Friend!
man. What a wonder ful Savior, What a wonder ful — Friend!

rit.